It would be great if you could also complete the certificate below

Boost your donation by 25p of Gift Aid for every £1 you donate

Kennet BKA is applying to become a registered Charity. When this occurs we will be able to boost any donation to the branch by 25p for every pound you donate. Your membership fee (but not additional BDI insurance or training fee) will be regarded as a donation. To enable us to claim your gift aid donation you must complete your details below.

I want to Gift Aid my membership subscription and/or my donation to Kennet [Tick the box]

As per my membership details above, I am a UK tax payer and understand that if I pay less Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations, it is my responsibility to pay the difference.

Sign/type in your name..... Date ...../...../.....

Please notify Kennet Beekeepers Association if you wish to:

- Cancel this declaration for any reason, which may include that you no longer pay sufficient tax on your income/capital gains;
- Change your name and/or home address.

If you pay income tax at the higher/additional rate and want to receive the additional tax relief due to you, you must include your Gift Aid donations on your Self Assessment tax return or ask HM Revenue & Custom to adjust your tax code.

2. BBKA membership. By becoming a member of Kennet Beekeepers Association, all members (except for Associate members) automatically become a member of the British Beekeepers Association (BBKA).
3. If you don't keep bees, Country/Associate memberships are your membership options. Any member of KBKA that keeps bees must be a Registered member of the KBKA or another BKA.
4. Junior members join for free; Kennet BKA will underwrite their subscription to the BBKA.
Kennet Introduction to Beekeeping Course. If you intend to take this and do NOT (yet) keep bees, you may join as an Associate member for now and upgrade your membership in due course. As an Associate member, however, you will not benefit from receiving BBKA NEWS, which is full of great advice for new beekeepers.
Data Privacy. Kennet Beekeepers Association will use your data to administer your membership and to communicate information about events, training courses, assessments and exams. This information will be recorded in our membership database, which is stored in compliance with the GDPR and UK Data Protection Act. Your membership data is shared with the British Beekeepers Association (BBKA), Wiltshire County Association officers and the BDI. Your personal data is not passed on by us for use by any other third parties whether or not connected with beekeeping.
